Please note:

- * These two days are not public holidays they are days on which all Government Departments (other than those providing essential services) will be closed.
- Margaret Thatcher Day falls on 10 January each year but is not a Government or public holiday.
- Falkland Day falls on 14 August each year but is not now a Government or public holiday. Executive Council agreed to move the holiday from 14th August to provide for the re-introduction of the Peat cutting holiday on the first Monday in October each year with effect from 2002.
- When a Public Holiday falls either on Saturday or Sunday, the holiday is carried over to the Monday.

Government Clocks

- Executive Council of 25 January 2012 confirmed that, following the trial period during 2011, clocks will remain on Summer time (UTC/GMT - 3 hours) indefinitely.
